Anti-Castro Leader Denounces Hunt View

A Cuban revolution official denounced H. L. Hunt Wednesday as a man who may be an expert on the oil business "but knows very little about the situation in Cuba."

Dr. Manuel A. Garcia Masada, 8245 Park Pl., Houston delegate of the anti-Castro Democratic Revolutionary Front, vigorously denied the Dallas multimillionaire's statement Tuesday that the abortive Cuban invasion was merely "an attempt to oust Castro in favor of another Communist government."

"It is not true," Dr. Masada insisted.

"The young people who went to fight and die in Cuba and who now face death by firing squad were trying to get our democratic ideals re-established in Cuba."

"I believe he (Hunt) is doing damage to us because he is misleading public opinion."

"We left our country because we are anti-Communist."

Dr. Masada said the United States Central Intelligence Agency was badly mistaken in expecting the invasion to trigger a massive citizen uprising against Castro.

He said such an uprising was impossible because "there are six or seven government informers in every block, watching."

"You can't have a gun in your house in Cuba, and you are always under surveillance," he said.

"So we lose the first battle, but we are ready to go on with the fighting until Castro is forced out of Cuba."
